

Friends of The Cantabile Ensemble

“Sing for joy to God our strength”

(Psalm 81:1)

The Cantabile Ensemble is committed to supporting Church music in the Island of Jersey ecumenically, particularly in those places where there is none, or where resources are limited.

An important aim of the Friends of The Cantabile Ensemble is to bring together those with a shared interest in Church music, regardless of denomination.

Friends of the choir support and promote our work by attending services and concerts, publicising events and providing practical and financial assistance with a suggested minimum annual subscription of £15.

The choir has charitable status and is self-funding, with most of its revenue coming from either its members or from occasional weddings. As a charitable organisation, it can reclaim the tax on donations to the choir from taxpayers in Jersey.

Benefits for Friends:

- Advance notification by email of concerts, services, and other events at which the choir is singing
- Acknowledgement in concert programmes (where organised by The Cantabile Ensemble)
- Discounts when booking the choir
- Discounts when purchasing recordings of the choir
- Invitations to social events
